

Collegiate Counselor Gambling Certificate (CCGC)

Training Outline

The Collegiate Counselor Gambling Certificate (CCGC) is designed specifically for College Counselors, or anyone working with college students. This is a certificate, and not a certification, and only requires 4 hours of an IPGGC-approved training to obtain.

- I. Understanding Gambling & Gambling Disorder in College Students
 - A. Types of Gambling
 - B. Definitions of Gambling and Disordered Gambling
 - 1. Gambling Disorder
 - a. Terminology
 - b. Diagnostic Criteria
 - C. Co-Occurring & emerging issues
 - D. Co-Occurring with substance use/abuse
- II. Gambling Disorder Assessments and Best Practices
 - A. Screens and Assessments
 - 1. Brief Biosocial Gambling Screen (BBGS) – 3 items
 - 2. Problem Gambling Severity Index (PGSI) – for more detailed screening
 - 3. Emerging Adults Gambling Screen (EAGS) – short and long form
 - 4. Rutgers Gambling Screening Protocol – longer, 3 parts, gambling is not referenced until part 3; incorporates BBGS, PGSI and GPQ
 - B. Financial Wellness
 - C. Best Practices for College Students
- III. Special Populations
 - A. Student Athletes
 - B. Greek Life
 - C. Cultural Humility
 - D. Affected Others
- IV. Whole Person Approach to Recovery
 - A. Campus based recovery programs
 - B. Social Media
 - C. Physical, mental, financial and social health
- V. Resources and Referrals

